REVOLUTION IN FRANCE.

The late excitement in political and financial circles in London and New York, occasioned by rumors of revolutionary outbreaks in Paris, and the fabricated report of the death of Louis Napoleon, connected with the threatening discontent lately evinced in various ways by the enemies of the Emperor, naturally cause the mind to recur to the similar disturbances which, since the allies imposed Louis XVIII upon France, has been the process by which France has changed her rulers.

Charles X. who succeeded his brother, Louis XVIII. in 1824, was never able to make it an forget that he belonged to that Bourbon family whom they had twice hurled from the throne, and the nation was all the time restive under the yoke. The king appointed known opponents of liberal principles to every place in the ministry, and it was the remonstrance of the press which at last, fifteen years after the overthrow of the first empire, brought the hostile elements into collision. By the advice of his ministers the king issued a decree prohibiting the publication of any such journals or pamphlets but such as were authorized by the government. This was on the 25th of July, 1830. On the 26th the obnoxious ordinances were placarded on the walls of Paris; that night barricades were formed in the streets; on the 27th the people and the royal troops came in collision in various places; on the 28th there was more and terrible fighting; on the 29th the king fled from the city, abdicating in favor of his grandson, the Duke of Bordeaux, who was to be recognized under the title of Henry V. But the people only answered with the cry of "Down with the Bourbons." This prince is now living, and is still regarded by the old Bourbon party as the legitimate sovereign of France, under the title of Henry V. It may be well to remember that in the contest by which Charles X was dethroned the armed force in Paris upon which the king could rely did not number 10,000 soldiers, and that Paris, in insurrection, can furnish 200,000 fighting men.

The revolution of 1830 was consummated by the establishment of a constitutional monarchy, under the new dynasty of Orleans, by calling Louis Philippe to a throne by a small minority, not exceeding a third of either the Chamber of Deputies or that of Peers, which, in the language of the historian Alison, "at the dictation of a clique in the ante-chambers of the Duke of Orleans, disposed of the crown to a stranger to the legitimate line, without either consulting the nation or knowing what form of government it desired." It was on the narrow base of these voices in the chamber that Louis Philippe was content to found his monarchy. In 1848 he met the fate of Charles X. The prohibition of public gatherings of the people to discuss political affairs led to the introduction of large dinner parties, called "banquets," to evade the prohibition, and the prohibition of them, in turn, led to the uprising of the people. Although Louis Philippe held Paris with a thoroughly armed force of 100,000 men, it ended in the king signing this little paper: "I abdicate in favor of the Count de Paris, my grandson, and I trust that he will be more fortunate than I." The abdication, as in the case of Charles X. came too late, but the Orleans party is still zealous in efforts to re-establish the monarchy in his person.

Louis Napoleon, Emperor of the French, was born in Paris, on the 20th of April, 1808. Charles Louis Napoleon Bonaparte, which is the name he received, was the third son of Louis, (one of the brothers of Napoleon I.) King of Holland, and Hortense daughter of Josephine Hortense was a woman of superior talents, but the marriage with Louis Bonaparte was a forced, ill-suited match, both the parties being averse to it, and yielding most reluctantly to the considerations of State by which it was urged. The eldest son died in infancy, and the other two children, of whom the Emperor was one, were declared by a decree of the Senate the heirs to the imperial throne, should Napoleon and his elder brother Joseph die without children. This decree was submitted to the acceptation of the French people, and was adopted by 3,521,675 votes, there being but 2,579 in opposition.

After the battle of Waterloo the mother, Hortense, retired with her family to Augsburg, and afterwards to Switzerland, where her son's principal tutor was a Frenchman of strong republican principles. He attended for a time a military college, where he made some progress in the science of gunnery. In the revolutionary movements of 1831 in Italy he and his brother took an active part, and his brother died in that year, a victim of his anxieties and fatigues. The death of the Duke of Rohstadt, in 1832, left him the successor of Napoleon, and from that time he is said to have fixed his eye upon the imperial position, writing various works to demonstrate the necessity of an emperor to the republican organization of France. In 1836 he proclaimed a revolution at Strasbourg, which was a failure, and he was taken prisoner and sent to this country. He landed at Boulogne with a similar purpose in 1840, but was again made a captive and sentenced to perpetual imprisonment in the fortress of Ham. From this prison he escaped after six years and took refuge in England. When the French revolution of 1848 drove Louis Philippe from his throne, Louis Napoleon repaired to Paris, and was chosen a deputy to the national assembly, and, after a stormy debate, was admitted to his seat, taking the oath of fidelity to the republic. In May, 1850, he was chosen President. In 185., the legislative assembly, which refused to pass several bills urged by him, was denounced as factious, and on the night of the 2d of December he executed his famous coup d'etat, dissolving the assembly, and sending the leading members to prison, while, at the same time, a decree was put forth ordering the establishment of universal suffrage and the election of a President for ten years. Under this decree he was again elected, and he then began to prepare for the restoration of the empire. In November, 1852, the people voted to revive the imperial dignity in his person, and he was declared Emperor under the title of Napoleon III. In January, 1853, he married Eugenie, Countess de Teba, a Spanish lady, by whom he had a son born March 16th, 1856.

The death of Louis Napoleon would deprive France of the wisest and most practical of its rulers for many centuries, and Europe of the only one of its kings who has been endowed by the Creator with the faculti s of royalty. The immediate consequence might be another revolution, with consequences to France and the rest of the continent which no one can foresee. Under his reign France has made greater progress in material development than any nation in Europe.—Baltimore Sun.

TERRIBLE AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—This morning, about 2 o'clock, fire was discovered in Mr. Clendening's restaurant, on Taylor Street, rear of Gregg's Hall, which in a short time communicated to the main building, and in a few minutes the entire structure was wrapped in flames. The fire had obtained such headway before the alarm was given, that the firemen were unable to save the immense building; but by almost superhuman exertions, prevented communication with Major Thos. Davis' splendid row of houses adjacent—but mournful to relate, not without a terrible loss of life and limbs. A squad from the Independent Fire Company, assisted by several citizens, were endeavoring to get a room in the rear of the burning building, when the South wall of Wearn & Hix's picture gallery fell, completely crushing the life out o two of the men, and severely, if not fatally, injuring several others. The following is a list of the casualties:

Killed—D. A. Carrington, Fraser B. Squier.

Severely Wounded—F. B. Beckham—legs broken and badly cut in head and body. Chas. F. Ryan—compound fracture of left leg and cut and bruised in body. Richard Tozer—right leg dislocated, and severely cut in head and body.—Columbia Phœnix, (Extra,) Dec. 14, P. M.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested, and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process must necessarily fall them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Hundreds of these Boilers are being sold each week, giving perfect satisfaction.

Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or money refunded.

Can be seen in full operation at Lougee & Brother's.

We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1868.

GOV. HOLDEN.

Many of Gov. Holden's friends do not hesitate openly to express their disappointment at the weakness and lack of judgment displayed in his administration of the Executive office. Why they should be thus disappointed, we are unable to comprehend. Any man, who observed, with half an eye, the manner in which he conducted the Provisional regime, ought to have been prepared for the imbecility and narrow partisanship which he has exhibited in his present more enlarged field of power and duty.—He had an opportunity, when made Provisional Governor, by the unfortunate (to him and the public) appointment of President Johnson, to make himself a high name,—to have disarmed the popular resentment which was felt for his previous political duplicities, and even to have conciliated their favorable regards,—but he threw it away, both because he had not the comprehension to grasp enlarged ideas, or the magnanimity of spirit to do enlarged deeds. And so it has come about that, from the same deficiencies, he has but accumulated the public contempt, and has not been able to invest the high office which he holds with any of the popular respect which anciently attached to it. Perhaps this is a natural sequence of the manner of his election, but it is still more the consequence of his own short-comings. No one will deny to him first-rate talent as a party newspaper paragraphist and as a shrewd political manager, where other interests than his own are involved. But when the latter is the case, he becomes actually stupid in his bunglings; and hence it is that, inflated with the conceit, that he could signalize an office, which has been filled by such men as the majority of his predecessors, he has done nothing but blunder and boggle from the start, to the surprise and mortification of the few men of intelligence who expected better things from him.

Announcing prescription, as the rule of his administration, he has, for once in his life, been consistent in his policy,—though ordinary discernment should have shown him, that this was one of the cases where a departure would have been hailed as wisdom and the commendable evidence of improved temper. The Guardian of the State's interests, he has allied himself with the horde of carpet bag adventurers, who have infested the land, and who are running the ship upon the rocks, with a consenting pilot at the helm. The Conservator of peace, he recommended measures which, if circumstances would have allowed him to carry them into practical operation, would have embroiled every community in the State and have brought about the scenes now transpiring in Arkansas. Setting out with the vaunt that he would make the credit of the State stand at par, he has fraternized with men, and connived at a policy, that have led us to the condition of a depleted Treasury and a hopeless financial prospective.

These facts are patent and painful, and their results are commented on by the Governor's own supporters in no complimentary terms. Now, let him retrace his steps, rely upon sounder judgment than that of his stripling Attorney General, cultivate more lenient moods, discard his carpet-bag surroundings, ask the counsel of men of enlarged and liberal ideas, who enjoy the public confidence, stop writing for the Standard, (a very unbecoming thing in a Governor,) learn justice, practice charity, et cetera, et cetera—and he will retrieve himself and his administration vastly; his friends will be gratified and his enemies will cry out "Well done!" Take our advice, Governor, and you will both do better, be better and feel better!

THE PREVIOUS QUESTION.

Not until the advent of carpet-bag-ism in North Carolina was this infamous engine of despotism introduced into our legislative councils. It has only been in operation, heretofore, in a few Northern Legislatures, where "Rings" exist, and in the National House of Representatives, which, for many years, has been no exemplar for deliberative assemblies. It has never found lodgment in the Senate of the United States, even in these days of its degeneracy. In the present Legislature of this State, its operation has been reduced to all the perfection of gaggery of which it is capable, in the hands of an unscrupulous majority.

Within the past fortnight, this odious device for the suppression of honest enquiry has been employed, almost daily, to stifle debate and throttle investigation. Matters of the gravest and most vital concern have been before the Legislature, involving extravagant appropriations of the people's money and unheard of taxation,—matters which demanded the most careful scrutiny and the most conscientious and searching examination,—but, in almost every instance, an attempt has been made to rush them blindly through by the application of the Previous Question, in the interests of the "Ring." The high-wayman invariably applies the Previous Question to the victim of his felonious purposes. He overpowers and then gags him, in order to prevent his warning outcries. Our parliamentary high-waymen serve minorities in precisely the same manner, with similar intentions, and for the same ends.

Nor do they stop here. The gag is effectively applied, discussion is stopped, and the swindle is perpetrated. Then comes "the clinching of the nail." Some man, who voted in the affirmative, moves a reconsideration; immediately, some other man, by collusion, moves to lay that motion on the table, and the majority, who applied the gag, carry the latter motion,—the object being to prevent all possibility of the "sober second thought," by placing the matter beyond the reach of further resistance. When a motion to reconsider is made and tabled, no further motion to the same effect, under parliamentary law, is admissible.—And thus it is that honest, patriotic minorities are impotent, because crushed, by these iniquitous expedients, beneath the feet of tyrannical and unprincipled majorities!

Legislature of North Carolina,

SENATE.

EVENING SESSION.

TUESDAY NIGHT, Dec. 15, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 7½ o'clock.

A majority of the Committee on Corporations reported favorably on a bill to amend the Charter of the City of Wilmington. The bill passed its second reading.

The following bills passed their second reading, viz:

Bill making appropriation for the Deaf and Dumb Asylum;

Bill to incorporate the University Rail road Company—(appropriation of $300,000)—Ayes 19, Nays 18;

Bill providing for the settlement of the estates of deceased persons;

Bill to repeal an act providing for the employment of convicts and the erection of a Penitentiary.

The following bills passed their third reading, viz:

Bill to incorporate the Land and Lumber Company of North Carolina;

Bill for the relief of the Sheriff of Tyrell County;

Bill to amend the Charter of the Town of Washington.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to morrow, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

EVENING SESSION.

TUESDAY NIGHT, Dec. 15, 1868.

According to adjournment, the House was called to order at 7½ o'clock.

Mr. Humphries presented the report of the Commissioners of Currituck County.—Referred.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, reports favorably upon the resolution in favor of T. H. Alexander. Placed on calendar.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Mr. Stanton: A resolution in favor of D. A. Spivey, late Tax Collector of Greene County.

On motion of Mr. Stanton, the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings.

Mr. Estes moved to suspend the rules and take up the bill to authorize the Treasurer to supply the temporary deficiencies in the Treasury. Carried.

The Chair informed the House that the bill was in the possession of the Engrossing Clerk, whereupon it was agreed to postpone its consideration for a short time.

Mr. Laflin, from the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported favorably upon Senate bill No. 55, entitled an act to re-enact and confirm certain acts of the General Assembly, authorizing the issue of State bonds to and for certain railroad companies.

Mr. Laflin moved to suspend the rules and put the bill on its second reading.

Mr. Pou opposed a suspension of the rules. He said this bill would have all the legal effect of a new bill. It sought to legalize the issue of bonds, which now were worth nothing in reality. He alluded to Cromwell's expression, when he saw his foe making a false move: "The Lord has delivered them into our hands." So he thought this was a false move on the part of the friends of these railroad enterprises. "The Lord has delivered" these railroad gentlemen into the hands of the friends of the State and the people. This was a dodge too palpable and poor to deceive any one. He would like to see this and all other bills of a similar character indefinitely postponed.

J. H. Harris, colored, replied, and during the discussion the Chair announced

THE SPECIAL ORDER, VIZ:

The bill for the better protection of certain debtors.

By consent, the bill (No. 55) just under discussion was made the special order for to-morrow morning, at 11 o'clock.

Pending the discussion of the special order,

Mr. Downing moved to adjourn; but withdrew the motion, in order to allow Mr. French to make a statement.

Mr. F. then stated that, after the adjournment, a caucus of the friends of internal improvements would be held.

Mr. D. then renewed his motion to adjourn; which was put to a vote and carried.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 16, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Leave of absence was granted Messrs. McLaughlin, Welker, Blythe, Burns, Moore, of Carteret, Eaves, Long and Martindale, from and after Friday next.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Robbins, from the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably on a bill to incorporate the Salem Fire Company.

On motion of Mr. Welker, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

Mr. Sweet, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom was referred the case of Senator Love, (he having been charged with being banned by the Howard amendment,) reported that they had investigated the case thoroughly, and were unable to procure any evidence to sustain the charge. Therefore, they asked to be discharged from its further consideration; and the report was concurred in.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS, &C.

By Mr. Respass: A bill to complete the State canals in the county of Hyde. Referred to the Committee on Education.

By Mr. Legg: A bill for the relief of W. M. D. Moore, late Clerk of the County Court of Brunswick. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. Love: A resolution for the relief of J. W. Fisher, late Clerk of the County Court of Jackson. On his motion, the rules were suspended, and the resolution passed its several readings.

By Mr. Barrow: A resolution proposing to raise a Joint Committee on Townships. Adopted.

Mr. Winstead presented a map of the Townships of Person county, as laid off by the Commissioners of said county.

On motion of Mr. Robbins, the use of the Senate Chamber was granted, from 2 o'clock, to the Attorneys of the State, to consult with the Code Commissioners in reference to the Code.

A message was received from the House, transmitting the following, to wit:

A resolution in favor of T. W. Alexander, of Tyrell county. Placed on Calendar.

Resolution in favor of D. A. Spivey, late Collector of Greene county. Placed on Calendar.

BILLS RATIFIED BY THE PRESIDENT, VIZ:

Bills for the relief of P. T. Massey and E. G. Hill, of Johnston county;

Bill to amend the charter of the Cheraw and Coalfields Railroad Company;

Bill for the relief of J. T. White, of Gaston county;

Bill to provide for the registration of voters in special elections;

Bill providing for the Municipal elections in the State.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Bill to amend the charter of the city of Wilmington. Passed unanimously.

Bill making an appropriation of $30,000 for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum.—Passed unanimously, ordered to be engrossed and sent to the House.

Bill to repeal an act to provide for the employment of convicts and the erection of a Penitentiary passed,—Messrs. Blythe, Burns, Cook and Rich voting in the negative.

Bill to incorporate the University Railroad Company passed by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Bellamy, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Forkner, Galloway, colored, Hayes, Lassiter, Lindsay, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Osborne, Rich, Richardson, Scott, Smith, Stephens, Winstead and Wilson—21.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barrow, Beasley, Brogden, Burns, Harrington, Long, Love, Melchor, Moore, of Yancey, McLaughlin, Robbins, Shoffner, Sweet and Welker—14.

Mr. Cook moved to reconsider the vote.

Mr. Rich moved to lay that motion on the table. Carried.

CALENDAR.

Bill to re enact and continue in force an act authorizing the Commissioners of Fayetteville to issue bonds:

Mr. Harrington said the intent of this bill was simply to exchange the old bonds, which have already been issued, for new bonds.

Mr. Barrow said it was clearly in opposition to the provisions of the new Constitution, and therefore unconstitutional, and moved to lay the bill on the table; which prevailed.

Bill in favor of John Tapscott, former Sheriff of Alamance county; referred to the Committee on Finance, on motion of Mr. Brogden.

Bill to repeal an act entitled an act to restore to married women their common law right of dower:

On motion of Mr. Welker, its further consideration was postponed until the 5th of January next.

Bill to protect certain citizens of North Carolina, who rented lands from the U. S. Treasury Agents, during the late war.—Passed its second reading.

Bill in favor of builders of public mills:

On motion of Mr. Barnes, it passed its several readings, under a suspension of the rules.

Resolution in favor of J. H. Davis, Jr., Sheriff of Carteret county:

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Carteret, the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings.

Mr. Jones, of Wake, said that it would be recollected by Senators that, some time since, a Committee had been appointed to investigate charges of bribery. He did not know who the Chairman of that Committee was, but he desired to enquire why the report was delayed. Members were going home, and they desired this matter cleared up before they left. A Senator on the floor had stated that he knew of cases of bribery, and that Senator was a member of the Committee. He should like to know when the report will be made, and hoped it would not be delayed.

Mr. Sweet said that, as a member of that Committee, he would say that the report would be forthcoming as soon as the whole matter is thoroughly investigated. He could say, for the Senate branch of the Committee, that they intended to sift the whole matter to the bottom, and did not intend to make any report until it was done thoroughly, notwithstanding the anxiety of the Senator from Wake, or any other Senator, to see the report.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to morrow, at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 16, 1868.

House called to order at the usual hour.

Mr. Whitley arose to a question of privilege. It had been reported in one of the papers of the city (Sentinel) that the report of the Commissioners of Mecklenburg county had been presented by Mr. Welker. He wished "Welker" stricken out and "Whitley" inserted. [The error was typographical.]

A message was received from the Senate, informing the House of the passage of the following Bills and Resolutions:

House bill to incorporate the Land and Lumber Co. of North Carolina. Ordered to be enrolled.

House bill authorizing certain counties to issue bonds, with an amendment. Concurred in and ordered to be enrolled.

House bill amending the Charter of the town of Washington. Ordered to be enrolled.

A bill to provide for the appointment of Entry Takers. Ordered to be enrolled.

House resolution to raise a Joint Committee to investigate the management of the affairs of the Bank of North Carolina. Ordered to be enrolled.

Mr. High presented the report of the Commissioners of Columbus county. Referred.

Mr. Jarvis presented the report of the Commissioners of Tyrrell county. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Jarvis, the rules were suspended, and the bill for the relief of J. H. Alexander was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Davis, the rules were suspended, and Senate bill for the relief of James Rumley was taken up and passed its several readings.

By consent, Mr. Peck introduced a bill to enable the County of Edgecombe to issue bonds for their indebtedness. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Candler, the rules were suspended, and House bill, No. 180, to amend an act regulating the sale of spirituous liquors in the town of Asheville, was taken up, and passed its several readings.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Sinclair, from the Committee on Private Bills, reported upon the bill to incorporate the Swift Island Manufacturing Company, recommending its passage, with a slight amendment.

On motion of Mr. S., the rules were suspended, and the bill, as amended, passed its several readings.

Mr. Pearson, from the Committee on Agricultural, reported favorably upon the bill for the protection of mechanics and laborers, with certain amendments. Placed on Calendar.

Mr. Pou, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably upon the bill to incorporate the State Loan and Trust Co. Placed on Calendar.

By consent, Mr. Smith, of Alleghany, offered a resolution raising a Joint Committee to examine and define the boundary line between this State and Virginia and South Carolina. Lies over.

On motion of Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, the rules were suspended and the bill to amend the Charter of Judson Female College was taken up.

This created quite a discussion, during which the Chair announced the special order for the hour, viz: Senate bill No. 55.

On motion of Mr. Estes, its consideration was postponed until 25 minutes after 11 o'clock.

The discussion upon the proposed amendment to the Charter of the College was resumed. Mr. Justice advocated the bill, and Messrs. Welch, Sinclair and Pou opposed it.

Mr. Clayton, of Transylvania, moved to lay the whole matter on the table, and on that motion called the yeas and nays. The call, being sustained, resulted yeas 17, nays 59.

Mr. Justice then offered a proviso that said amendment shall not interfere with any chartered right of the town of Hendersonville.

The proviso was adopted, and the question then recurred upon the motion of Mr. Justice to strike out section 6, and insert the amendment, as amended. Carried.

The bill, as amended, then passed its several readings.

By consent, Mr. Proffit offered a resolution in favor of Chas. Bird, former Sheriff of Yancey county. Referred.

SPECIAL ORDER:

The bill entitled "an act to re-enact and confirm certain acts of the General Assembly, authorizing the issue of State bonds to and for certain Railroad Companies."

Mr. Laflin, who reported this bill, as Chairman of the Internal Improvement Committee arose to make some remarks upon it, when,

Mr. Pou made a point of order, saying that the resolution, which was adopted yesterday, postponing all bills appropriating money until the second Monday in January next, included this bill.

The Chair said that he understood that motion as only applying to the bills then pending. This bill being then in the possession of the Committee, that motion would not apply to it.

Mr. Laflin then resumed, saying that the House would stultify itself by refusing to confirm their acts in this matter, &c.

Mr. Downing also advocated the passage of the bill, and Mr. Bowman also was in favor of it.

Mr. Pou said: I am surprised to see members of this House persist in their efforts to pass measures through the General Assembly, which they ought to know now, and which, in a few months, they certainly will know, are not constitutional, and, consequently, not capable of being transformed into law.

Section 5, Article V, of the State Constitution clearly shows that the General Assembly has no power now, to contract any new debt in aid, either directly or indirectly, of any Railroad enterprise, unless in the "same bill" authorizing the contracting of the debt a special tax is levied to pay the interest annually on the debt so contracted, the bonds of the State being not now at par.

The bills passed last August, lending the credit of the State to various Railroads, are clearly without constitutional authority, because the same bills made no provision, by levy of a special tax, to pay the interest annually on the debt so contracted.

This fatal defect is well known to the friends of the Railroad aid bills passed at the late session, and they seek in this bill to cure it.

The cure may be made as to Roads that were begun, but not finished, at the date of the adoption of the Constitution.

But this bill seeks to do more. Sec. 5 of Art. V of the Constitution provides that even though the special tax be levied in the same bill with the bill authorizing the obligation, yet when the object of the obligation sought to be created is to lend the credit of the State in aid of any person, association or corporation, the subject must be submitted to a direct vote of the people of the State and be approved by a majority of those who shall vote thereon, "except to aid in the completion of such Railroads" as were begun and were unfinished at the time of the adoption of the Constitution—or except in aid of Roads in which the State had a direct pecuniary interest at the time of the adoption of the Constitution.

The Chatham Railroad gets by the bill under consideration what is tantamount to a direct State subscription of $2,000,000.—This road was not begun and is consequently not an "unfinished" road within the meaning of the Constitution. The appropriation therefore cannot get validity on that ground.

Of course the State had no "direct pecuniary interest" in this road at the time of the adoption of the Constitution. So far from it the corporation itself had no existence at that date.

The language of the Constitution is not "may have," but "has," a direct pecuniary interest.

The General Assembly, therefore, in my opinion, has not the power, if so disposed, to pass the $2,000,000 appropriation for the Chatham road unless the same is submitted to a vote of the people.

Mr. Malone asked that the bill be explained. He thought provision ought to be made in reference to the two roads mentioned in the first section.

But what does the 4th section mean?—As I understand it the 4th section makes the State take $2,000,000 stock. Here is an extraordinary effort to interpolate a new and stupendous Railroad bill under a pretended statement that a curative statute is intended. The act of the 15th day of August, 1868, simply allows the State to exchange her bonds for a like number of registered bonds of the Company, but this 4th section substitutes a new law into, and makes the State a stockholder to the amount of $2,000,000. Is it desirable for the State to take stock in all these Railroads? Certainly it should not be done without great care and reflection. I am confident this House does not understand this bill.

Mr. Estes took the floor and argued at some length in favor of the provisions of the bill.

Mr. Laflin arose in reply to the inquiries of the gentleman from Caldwell, (Mr. Malone,) in regard to the operation of section 4th of the bill, and concluded by calling the previous question.

The call was sustained. Upon the passage of the bill on its second reading, Mr. Pou called for the yeas and nays. The call, being sustained, resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Barnett, Blair, Candler, Carey, colored, Cawthorn, colored, Cherry, colored, Clayton, of Transylvania, Crawford, Davis, Dixon, Downing, Ellington, Estes, Forkner, colored, Foster, French, Gahagan, Gatling, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, colored, Hayes, colored, Hicks, Hodgin, Hoffman, Humphries, Hudgings, Ingram, Jarvis, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Liffin, Leary, colored, Long, of Chatham, Mayo, colored, Moring Morris, colored, Parker, Pearson, Peck, Price, colored, Proctor, Renfrow, Robbins, colored, Robinson, Reynolds, colored, Short, Siegrist, Sinclair, Simmonds, Snipes, Stevens, Stilley, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, White, Wilkie, Williamson, colored, Wilson, and Wiswall—69.

NAYS.—Messrs. Armstrong, Barnes, Beddie, Bowman, Perebee, Gibson, Hawkins, High, Hinnant, Hodnett, Malone, McMillan, Mendenhall, Pou, Smith, of Wayne, Sweat, Thompson, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, and Williams, of Sampson—21.

The Chair announced the next special order, to wit: The bill to amend the act entitled an act to establish a legal rate of interest and to repeal chapter No. 114, Revised Code.

On motion of Mr. Estes, its consideration was postponed until the third Monday in January next.

On motion of Mr. French the bill to amend the charter of the Green Swamp Company was included in the postponement.

On motion of Mr. French, it was agreed that when the House adjourned to-day, it should adjourn until to-morrow morning, 10 o'clock.

On motion of Jas. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, House bill, No. 117, for the better protection of debtors, (reported unfavorably upon by Committee) was taken up. He offered a proviso that the act shall not apply to the collection of bills of cost from any court of record in this State, nor to any penalty on official bonds, and, further, that sheriffs and other collecting officers shall not be liable on their official bonds for latiure, in obedience to this act, to collect according to laws heretofore in force, only for bills of cost, and fees, and penalties.—Adopted.

Mr. Seymour opposed the bill and proceeded to show various objections to it.

Mr. Bowman moved to insert the word "Constitutional" before the word "laws" in the 7th line, and the amendment was accepted.

Pending further discussion of the matter, the House adjourned until to-morrow, 10 o'clock.

NOTE.—Mr. Bowman said, in explanation of his vote, upon the second reading of Senate bill No. 55, (confirming the issuing of bonds to certain Railroad Companies,) that he at first intended to vote for the bill, but, on reflection, he would vote against it, as he did not understand the provisions of section 4th. The same motives induced Mr. Malone to vote in the negative.

In the proceedings of Monday evening last, Mr. Durham was incorrectly reported as having said, when the question of postponing certain Railroad bills was debated, "that he did not know that he should vote against any of them." It should have been: "That he thought it probable that he would vote for some of them, if time were allowed for a proper consideration."

For the Sentinel.

THE GREAT CONSPIRACY.

Mr. Editor:—As a friend of North Carolina and all her interests, I deem it to be a sacred duty that I owe to her people, and more especially to the individual Stockholders in the North Carolina Railroad, to state to the Stockholders in all our Railroads, that I have good reason to believe that there is a strong Ring, who are now busily engaged in forming a grand conspiracy to get in their possession all our Railroads, without paying but little or anything, either to the individual Stockholders or the State for them. The plan, if I understand it, is this, or something very nearly like it:

The Ring are to get through legislative charters for as many Roads as they can, with heavy appropriations from the State, proposing to construct new Roads in every conceivable direction, running parallel with the North Carolina Railroad. By pressing all these Roads through the Legislature in hot haste, it is hoped the Ring will be able to reduce the credit of the State to such an extent, as to enable them to purchase up the old bonds of the State at a very low rate.

This result is counted upon with great confidence by the financiers of the Ring, and while they are to attend to this particular branch of the business committed to their especial charge, other prominent members of the Ring are to employ active agents to travel, free, up and down the Roads, with the list of the names of all the Stockholders in their pockets, whose especial business it will be to declare that the new Roads chartered, and others that will be passed by the present Legislature to sell out the State's interest in all our works of Internal Improvements, or to have them leased for a term of years, to pay the State, will render the stock in them entirely worthless to the Stockholders, as all the present shares will be taxed heavily, both for State and County purposes.

I assert that I have good reason to believe that while the efforts I have mentioned will be resorted to to depreciate the old bonds and the stock in all of our Railroads, by a portion of the Ring and their agents, another portion of the thieving cabal or Junto will be prowling through every town and County along the lines of these Roads, with the list of the names of the Stockholders in their pockets, as before stated, with the cash in their pockets to purchase up all the stock they can get, at a small nominal figure,—especially that portion of the stock held and owned by the Conservatives. If they can succeed in purchasing the old bonds, issued by the State to construct these Roads, at a very low rate, as they feel confident they can do, by adopting the plan above faintly shadowed forth, and also purchase up the individual stock in the Road during the panic they are zealously laboring to create, they hope that the day is not far distant, when they will own and have full possession of all our works of Internal Improvement that are, or are likely soon to be, worth anything. And this great result is to be speedily accomplished, and with a very small sum of money, when compared with the original cost of these improvements.

I have had but one moment to write you before the mail closes, but you may rely upon it, there is now such a Ring in existence, and, if it has not commenced operating, it will soon do so, to carry out this grand object of swindling. I therefore earnestly appeal to you, and all true friends of the State and her credit, and especially to the Stockholders on all of our Railroads, to be on the qui vive and not to sell their stock for little or nothing to this unprincipled gang of land-sharks.

Are there not honest men enough in this State to crush out so infamous a conspiracy? I hope there are, and that yours and the other papers of this State will do your part to bring about this desirable result, and, that, too, speedily! CATO.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

Non-Forfeiture Rules.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restoratives, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the District Clerk's office for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these schnapps would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the inducements which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by nefarious hucksters; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with the essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK,
Nov. 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK 53 CEDAR STREET,
November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification; that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, May 1.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession and thousands of lives have been sacrificed to the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,

We remain your obedient servants,

VALENTINE MOTT, M. D., Professor of Surgery, University Medical College, New York
J. M. CARNOCHAN, M. D., Professor of Clinical Surgery, Surgeon-in-Chief to the State

Sweet Family Lard, Cockade City Ale, fine Mountain Apples, Family Flour, Meal and Potatoes: W. H. Jones & Co., Fayetteville Street.

Notice of application to the Legislature for the privilege of erecting a Dam on Neuse river, at Watson's Falls.

Messrs. W H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. announce their third importation this Fall,—embracing a magnificent stock and many articles appropriate to the Christmas Holydays.

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO.—The more one studies the details of this great Company, and its admirable and liberal plan of operations, the more it commends itself to both the judgment and the interests. A Company which issues annually such an immense number of policies, until its capital has increased to a gigantic sum, must have a strong hold upon popular confidence. The fact that the number of policies issued, annually, increases with each year, is proof positive that that confidence is being yearly strengthened. All of these facts, taken in connection with the enlarged features which it is constantly incorporating, to keep up with the liberal progress of the age, stamp it as a NOBLE INSTITUTION.

W. H. Crow, Esq., of this city, General Agent for North Carolina and (in part) Virginia, is always ready to explain the operations of his Company and to elucidate its advantages. Insure with the New Year.

THE CAROLINA FARMER.—Mr. Bernard announces that he has associated with himself, in the management of this excellent Agricultural journal, Robert K. Bryan, Esq., of New Hanover. Mr. B. is a gentleman of fine ability, eminently fitted for the duty he undertakes. Under the joint auspices, the Farmer will be still more worthy of encouragement and support.

IMMEDIATELY after the adjournment of the House, on Tuesday night, a "caucus" of the friends of the various Railroad schemes, now pending, was held.

Nothing was agreed upon, we learn, except that, after the recess, no Railroad schemes, or other enterprises, asking for appropriations of money, shall be considered, save those which have already come from the Senate.

THE UNIVERSITY.—We learn, from the Standard, that the Presidency of the University has been tendered to L. P. Olds, Esq., of this City, and that he has "furnished a plan for starting the school at once, with a new curriculum based upon the best systems of the times." We presume that the "Climatic Theory" essay forms an important part of the "system," though we would suggest some simplification, so as to bring it within comprehension.

We trust that, in the distribution of Professorships, the claims of Font Taylord will not be overlooked.

ANOTHER HOMICIDE.—The last Newbern papers announce another homicide,—both parties, as usual, being negroes. Murder has become a daily occurrence among the hundreds of idle and thriftless negroes congregated in and around our unfortunate sister city. For the past few weeks, especially, the Coroner has been the busiest man in the county.

THE ELECTION for a Senator in the 41st. District, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the illegal exclusion of Maj. A. C. Avery, takes place to-day. As heretofore announced, R. L. Beall, Esq., is the Democratic candidate. We have not heard who is his opponent.

LAURA KEENE.—The Queen of the American stage is in Norfolk. Can she not be persuaded to pay our inland City a visit? What say the Messrs. Tucker?

A CARD.—Mr. M. A. Parker desires to return his thanks to the different Fire Companies, and to the citizens generally, for their efforts in preserving his property during the conflagration on Tuesday morning last.

AN APPEAL.

The ladies of the Wilmington Memorial Association contemplate holding a Bazzar at the City Hall on the 22d, 23d and 24th of December, and would not only thankfully receive, but do earnestly solicit, contributions both from home and abroad. Having been presented by the Cemetery Company with one of the most beautiful locations in Oakdale, the Association has at great expense removed the soldiers buried at the Cemetery during the war to this spot, and are now striving to obtain funds to place an iron railing around it, and erect a monument to their memory. Knowing of no more available way to secure this object, it was decided upon to hold a Bazaar. For this end the ladies of all denominations are now preparing, but are still fearful that without additional contributions the proceeds of said Bazaar will fall short of the sum necessary to accomplish the desired object, to aid in which should swell with pride the breast of every true Southerner.

Who will not deem it a privilege to contribute some token to prove that there still lives in the bosoms of grateful Southerners the memory of the fallen brave? Kind nature, with ample hands, yearly brings her verdant offering, covering their graves with a mantle of love, teaching in this silent lesson that her living children should ever keep green the memories of those who relinquished home, happiness, and even life itself, to answer the call of a needy country. Neither "storied urn nor animated bust" can re-call "the fleeting breath," nor is pomp or display requisite to testify our remembrance—all we wish is means to obtain a substantial enclosure, which will protect from the outer world the beautiful resting place of the noble dead, long after the hands of those who are now working for them have been folded for their last sleep; and if possible to mark with a neat pillar of marble, to coming generations, the hallowed spot where "the soldiers lie quietly sleeping." Many sons of Georgia and South Carolina are among the number.—Any contributions from their native States, and, indeed, from any other point, can be easily forwarded, and will be gladly received by the President of the Association.

We most cheerfully comply with a request to publish the foregoing touching and eloquent appeal from the ladies of our sister city of Wilmington.

It need not be said, surely, that the pious and noble object which these dear ladies have in view, is one which commends itself to the most grateful appreciation of every Southern man, woman and child. It is worthy of the precious memories of our departed heroes,—worthy of the sex which has undertaken it,—and worthy of the most liberal co operation upon the part of all our people.

The ladies of Raleigh have nobly signalized themselves in this good work, and may point with just pride to the beautiful Cemetery, near this city, which enshrines the remains of our gallant dead. But they have been favored (though it detracts not one iota from their own noble labors) with State assistance, while their Wilmington sisters have prosecuted their task, thus far, without outside aid.

Can not,—will not,—our citizens, of either sex, assist the ladies of Wilmington in this matter? What a suitable Christmas offering it would be, to contribute towards perpetuating the memories of the martyred heroes, who are beyond the genial earthly interchanges and endearments of the hallowed season!

We are requested to state that any contributions of money, or of articles for the Bazaar, forwarded to Mrs. Julia E. Oakley, President of the Wilmington Memorial Association, will be most gratefully received.

THE LILLIPUTIANS.—The exhibition of the little folks at Tucker Hall, last night, was attended by a large and delighted crowd. The redoubtable "General," himself, was not present,—being detained in New York by sickness,—but the others were on hand, as "large as life." We were perfectly carried away with the appearance and performances of the wee ones, as was every one also. "Commodore" Nutt is what might be called a diminutive "brick," and Mrs. Thumb, Miss Minnie Warren and "Gen. Grant" revived the memory of King Arthur's Round Table and its elfin guests. Though very small, the Thumbians have created a great sensation in our midst.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Henry Murray, Esq., of this county, was found dead in bed, at his residence four or five miles South-East of Raleigh, on Tuesday morning. He had retired in his usual good health. Mr. M. was a worthy citizen.

DECISION.—Washington, November 4, 1868.—Sir,—I reply to your letter of the 1st instant that when a father, in consideration of natural love and affection, conveys land to his son, or conveys it without valuable and adequate consideration, there is no sale within the meaning of the revenue law, and consequently the deed is exempt from stamp duty. The son takes the land as successor under the provisions of sections 127 and 132, and section 129 fixes the amount of duty that shall be levied and paid to the United States in respect of every such succession.

Very respectfully,
E. A. ROLLINS.
Department Commissioner.

The Right Rev. Thomas F. Davis, Bishop of South Carolina, preached in St. James' Church in this city on Sunday morning last. The sermon was exceedingly argumentative and very learned in its character, and was especially adapted to the occasion, the first Sunday in Advent. It was delivered by the venerable Bishop from his chair, his feeble health rendering it impossible for him to stand so long. His voice, though evidently weakened from age and suffering, has in it at times something of the power of youth. The town of his nativity feels her pulse beat warm with affection and pride at the sight of so eminent a son and so distinguished a Father in the Church.—Wil. Journal, 15th.

COST OF THE PRESIDENT'S DEFENCE.—The New York Times and Buffalo Commercial both favor the motion made in Congress to appropriate $50,000 to defray the expense of President Johnson's defence in the impeachment trial. The Commercial, which is a Radical journal, says that as the President was acquitted, the necessary legal presumption is that he was innocent, and therefore should not be compelled to defray the expenses of his own trial.

MUNIFICENT BEQUEST.—Mr. Thomas M. Hope, of Hampton, but at present residing in Illinois, has recently sent $1,000 to ex-Gov. Henry A. Wise to be devoted to the widows and orphans of Confederate soldiers, and $300 to Dr. J. P. Hope, of Hampton, to be distributed in the same manner. Norfolk Virginian.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16, M.

The House passed the bill repealing the Act forbidding militia in the reconstructed States, except Georgia. This is an original bill—not that passed by the Senate, on yesterday.

The Senate is considering a resolution directing the Judiciary Committee to enquire into the extraordinary decisions of Judge Underwood, of Virginia, in nullifying the verdicts of Courts, whose officers are ineligible under the 14th. Amendment—the argument turning on the use of the word "extraordinary."

The Supreme Court is discussing the taxability of certain United States Securities.

CUBA.

HAVANA, Dec. 16, M.

The Government is engaged in searching for political offenders. Many arrests have been made in the interior, including some well known citizens.

Balmaseda was at Havana, on Sunday, consulting with Lersundi, who returned on Monday with reinforcements.

Additional troops will be forwarded. Two thousand are expected from Spain to-morrow.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16, M.

Gold 1,35¼. North Carolinas, new, 61¼. Virginias, ex-coupons, 55¾; new 57.

Cotton more steady. Middling uplands 25¼.

Turpentine quiet and steady at 44½. Rosin more active at 2,32½@2,35 for strained common.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16, P. M.

The President has nominated W. M. Smallwood, Post Master for New Orleans; Fred M. Dockery, Attorney for Florida and G. Gordon Adam, Attorney for the Northern District of Mississippi.

The Committee to enquire into the character of the Maryland government takes evidence during recess

The total estimate for the next fiscal year is three hundred and three millions, including one hundred and ninety-nine millions for interest on the public debt, and twenty-eight millions for pensions.

Col. J. E. Bryant, Chairman of the Executive Republican Committee of Georgia, authorizes a statement that is opposed to Sumner's and Butler's bills, and will oppose any measure throwing Georgia back under military government.

Should either the Senate or House bills, repealing the law forbidding the militia in the reconstructed States, pass, a pocket veto during recess will kill it.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16, P. M.

SENATE.—The word "extraordinary" was stricken from the resolution regarding Underwood's decisions, and the resolution passed.

A resolution, directing the Secretary of the Senate to pay the Southern Senators from the commencement of the Fortieth Congress, meeting objection, it went over.

The Judiciary Committee reported adversely on some, and favorably on other, bills relieving political disabilities.

A resolution was introduced, concerning the financial views of the President's Message.

Hendricks moved to substitute, saying that the Senate cordially endorsed the President's views relating to the inviolability of the public debt.

The substitute was voted down. The consideration of the original resolution was resumed, and, without further action, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—A bill passed relieving the political disabilities from certain parties, including the Lt. Gov. of Tennessee.

A bill passed extending the time for the payment of tax on tobacco on hand from the 1st. of January to the 15th. of February.

The speaker announced that eighteen members desired to speak in eulogy of the dead members.

Seward reported that no Commissioner had been sent to Spain by the Executive.

The House then adjourned.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 16, P. M.

The Republican papers oppose further Congressional interference in reconstruction.

FOREIGN.

MADRID, Dec. 16, P. M.

Spain is entirely tranquil.

LONDON, Dec. 16, P. M.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson, in a letter to the Working Men's Society, justifies his intercourse with Laird, and other friends of the South during the war, by the example of Sherman and Grant. He attributes the attacks on him in the American papers to a secret dislike for the preservation of peaceful relations between the two countries.

THE ATTENTION of Dealers and Sportsmen is invited to this improved weapon, now becoming extremely popular wherever it is known. Gen. Wade Hampton says of it:

And a Carbine, weighing seven and a half pounds and carrying thirteen shots in magazine. Price $40. Cartridges $2 per hundred. Calibre of both arms is same as Colt's Army Pistol, 44-100 inch.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,982,66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THURSDAY DECEMBER 17, 1868

[The New Orleans papers tell of a man who died some time since, having been a raving maniac for many years. Ten years ago he was tried, convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of a beautiful flower girl. On the day appointed for his execution he became a maniac, and after proper investigation he was restored to his friends. As death finally approached him he began to rave fearfully, and in his dying moments gave minute particulars of the murder he had committed ten years before.]

REMORSE—A SONNET.

BY RUFUS WILSON.

The devious paths of Sin are full of thorns,
They pierce and lacerate the erring Soul,
That, reckless of Self retribution, scorns
The voice of reason urging self-control.
Who dares transgress laws human or divine,
Does with his direst enemies combine.
There's no escape from violated law!
"Be sure your sin will find you out" is true
As when first penned in Holy Writ to awe
Stained disobedience and to make man rue
The day that found him passion's willing slave.
Ignoble servitude! for which he gave
His peace now wrung by unrelenting Force—
By thee—thou vengeful Nemesis, REMORSE.

WHY WOMEN SHOULD VOTE.—Because one sober woman walking to the poll is better than fifteen men reeling there.

Because women would be content with smaller bribes than men, and thereby save candidates a deal of expense.

Because men have had the franchise so long, and have made such a mess of it, that women ought to be allowed a trial.

Because women, if much longer denied the franchise, will spitefully degenerate into men, wear male attire, use male language, adopt male impreccations, build male cities, and refuse to dance in step.

Because mothers, in possession of the franchise would be able to say, "If you'll marry one of my daughters, Mr. Allgoid, I'll give you my vote and interest."

Because I, who write these reasons, want to vote for dear Captain—Ah! wouldn't you like to know his name?

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

Is the recognized leader of the

Strangers in the City will find it to their advantage to call in and get a

WINTER OUTFIT.

THE REASONS WHY:—Here is the LARGEST ASSORTMENT in Raleigh;

Here is the STYLE;

Here the "ONE PRICE" system is strictly adhered to;

Here are the LOWEST PRICES in the City;

He sells for CASH; therefore, high prices are not essential to success. The man who pays his money at this House contributes nothing towards paying bad debts made by others who "never mind the price."

Great pains taken in fitting the customer, and polite attention shown under all circumstances.
